

A.2: Vision and Mission

Vision

Sant'Anselmo is the Benedictine international university in Rome

Mission

Through its academic activity, research and training, Sant'Anselmo wishes to:

- Offer higher Benedictine education which is high quality and open to all.
- Develop understanding of Benedictine values such as the community dimension and liturgical celebration, the theology and the biblical and patristic spirituality, the theological reflection incarnate in real life which aims to integrally develop man, and ecumenical, inter-religious and intercultural dialogue.
- Ensure the relevance of Benedictine values in the modern world.
